Fast and accurate batch data services for law firms.

Tracers

Tracers batch processing delivers high-volume results in one search.

Tracers batch processing services for legal providers allow for quick data collection with high-volume searches. Our batch services can process thousands of searches at once to sift through our extensive database of over 42 billion public records, providing you with the data most specific to your case. For legal professionals handling bankruptcy cases, class-action suits or mass torts, batch processing helps you reduce busywork and focus your efforts on winning your case.

Quickly get information

Save time

Save money

Access large amounts of information for fast legal research.

Access and search address and address history, relationship reports, landline and cell numbers, and driving registration information. You can also batch search criminal records, property records, asset records to get the data you need.

Reduce busywork and increase billable hours.

Batch processing services for legal professionals allow you to avoid the time and cost associated with performing individual searches or manual investigation with automation and provide you with accurate and reliable results in just a few seconds. Searches available with batch processing include:

» People searches.
» Reverse phone directory.
» Vehicle searches.
» Bankruptcy records, liens, and judgments.
» Property records.
» Deceased records.
» Asset records.
» More.

Contact us to learn more

Phone
1-877-723-2689

Email
sales@tracers.com